HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION
MEETING MINUTES
JULY 14, 2020
3:00 PM

Historic Preservation Commission Members in Attendance:

Chairperson Eric Plaag, Vice-Chairperson Phoebe Pollitt, Teresa Pearman, Bettie Bond, Chuck Watkins, Rennie Brantz and Loretta Clawson

Town Staff in Attendance: Jane Shook-Director of Planning and Inspections, Christy Turner – Senior Planner and Marlene Crosby-Board Secretary

Others Present: John Ward-Town Manager, Allison Meade-Town Attorney and Anna Twigg-Town Hall Intern

Call to Order

Chairperson Plaag called the meeting of the Boone Historic Preservation Commission, held via WebEx, a video conferencing software to order at 3:00 p.m.

Board Training

Ms. Allison Meade, Boone Town Attorney gave a brief introduction to some board training regarding the Town of Boone gift policy. She informed the Historic Preservation Commission that the Council passed a new gift policy in June of 2020. She said the Council asked her to inform each Town board and committee member regarding this change to policy because it applies to them as well as to the Council members. She said at the next HPC meeting she will include a copy of the gift policy and a few other materials that will cover some basic board issues like open meetings law, public records law, and the authority of boards and committees under the Town Code. She said she would answer questions on the material.

Ms. Meade reviewed the new gift policy on the virtual computer screen. She noted that the gift policy is part of the Code of Ethics located in Chapter 30 of the Town Code. She explained that in the revised Chapter 30, Part D (1)(a.-f.), this section now contains more detail in an attempt to provide greater guidance as to gifts. She said in the revised text there is a blanket rule that gifts are not to be accepted. She explained the section on the monetary value of gifts. She also talked about the exceptions to gifts that may be accepted.

Ms. Meade explained and gave some examples of when a board or committee member can accept a gift or not accept a gift. Chairperson Plaag asked Ms. Meade about two potential scenarios that could be an issue involving the current HPC committee members. He said there are times, when the Watauga County Historical Society asks for a historian to speak as part of their speaker series. He said if HPC Member Watkins is given an honorarium to speak at an event and he accepts the honorarium, is this grant against the Town's gift policy. Ms. Meade said no because HPC Member Watkins is not a Watauga Historical Society committee member. She also said that Watauga Digital would not be covered under the gift policy. Chairperson Plaag said occasionally another person on the HPC will give him books that they no longer want. He asked if these types of exchanges fall under the gift policy. Ms. Meade said no.

Ms. Meade left the virtual meeting at approximately 3:20 p.m.

Adoption of Agenda

Discussion ensued on moving the Public Comment agenda item permanently to the beginning of the agenda. Chairperson Plaag asked Ms. Christy Turner, Senior Planner, if an agenda item can be permanently moved by the HPC putting forth a motion and vote to do so. Ms. Turner said that she would research the rules and procedures to see what it says about this type of change. Chairperson Plaag explained that it makes better sense to have the public comment at the beginning of the meeting before the discussion and decisions are made on agenda topics.

Chairperson Plaag made a motion, seconded by Vice-Chairperson Pollitt to move the Public Comment agenda item to the beginning of this meeting agenda.

Vote:

Aye – (Clawson, Pearman, Plaag, Pollitt, Watkins)

Nay – None

Abstentions – (Bond and Brantz) due to technical issue

The motion passed.

Approval of Minutes

Member Brantz made a motion, seconded by Vice-Chairperson Pollitt to approve the June 9, 2020 meeting minutes as amended.

Vote:

Aye - All

Nay - None

The motion passed.

Public Comment

There was no public comment at this meeting.

District Designation Report

Chairperson Plaag noted that he was not able to complete the District Designation Report since the HPC last meeting. He said he will try to get it completed in the next seven to ten days and send it out to the HPC members for their review. He asked the HPC members, if they would vote to add the District Designation Report to the next Council agenda because he does not anticipate any issues with it.

Member Bond made a motion, seconded by Member Brantz to add the draft District Designation Report to the August 2020 Council agenda pending the Historic Preservation Commission's vote at their August 2020 meeting approving the draft report.

Vote:

Aye – all

Nay – none

The motion passed.

Survey Report

Chairperson Plaag reviewed an email from Ms. Annie McDonald containing proposed changes and comments from her review of the draft Survey Report beginning on page three through page 338 (permanently attached).

Chairperson Plaag explained that he and Ms. McDonald agreed that he would make the correction on page 18 by contextualizing the statement further by adding the damage done to the court house here in Boone. He said there were other courthouses that were attempted to be burned during Stoneman's Raid.

Chairperson Plaag said that he would make the proposed changes to the draft report that Ms. McDonald has suggested for page 73, as well as the other proposed changes found in the email from Ms. McDonald. He asked the HPC members, if they had other proposed changes or comments on the proposed changes presented at this meeting. There were no other proposed changes made to the draft Survey Report at this meeting.

Chairperson Plaag asked the HPC members, if they would authorize him to make the proposed changes given to him from Ms. McDonald and presented at this meeting and he would send the draft Survey Report to Ms. Turner. He also asked the HPC members to vote to add the draft Survey Report to the August 2020 Council agenda for approval pending the map from the Town of Boone, GIS Department that will be included in the draft Survey Report.

Member Brantz made a motion, seconded by Member Pearman to authorize Chairperson Plaag to make the proposed changes suggested by Ms. Annie McDonald from the State Historic Preservation Office that were reviewed at this Historic Preservation Commission meeting. And for the Planning Staff to add the draft Survey Report to the Council's August 2020 meeting agenda for final approval.

Vote:

Aye – All

Nay – None

The motion passed.

Member Watkins asked Chairperson Plaag about the plans for disseminating the Survey Report. Chairperson Plaag noted at the last HPC meeting that Ms. Shook had stated that the joint-meeting with the SHPO, Community Appearance Commission and the Historic Preservation Commission had been approved by Council; and she was waiting on some other information and dates and once she received the dates, she will send out a doodle poll to schedule the meeting. Chairperson Plaag asked Ms. Shook for an update on the scheduling of the joint meeting. He also stated that it is vital to have the joint meeting and to have a coordinated strategy for how the information will be disseminated to the public and the receiving of feedback on the material, given the pandemic issues we are facing now. Ms. Turner explained that the Planning Staff is working on the logistics of having a virtual meeting with approximately 25 people. Ms. Turner said she would give the HPC an update on the coordinating of the joint meeting at their next HPC meeting. Chairperson Plaag further explained that by August of 2020 the Survey Report and the District Designation Report will be widely available for anyone that is following along with the HPC meetings. He said that he wanted to know that there is a coordinated strategy in place to be able to address concerns that may be raised by business owners or tenants or others that may not understand the process.

Discussion ensued on the publication of the Survey Report and District Designation Report and other information that the HPC generates. Chairperson Plaag explained that there has been previous discussion on placing this type of information on the Town website. He said an option for publications would be a stand-alone Historic Preservation Commission website that is linked to the Town website. He explained that with Council approval, the HPC has the ability to raise funds and use the funds on these types of things. He said a website costs approximately $150.00 per year and someone has to maintain the changes to it.

Discussion ensued on using publish on demand. Member Watkins said that the public could order a hard copy from it. Chairperson Plaag said that publish on demand is a possibility.

Ms. Turner responded to the interest in a stand-alone website. She said that the Town prefers to handle their own website publications. She said there has been a previous discussion on putting the HPC generated information on either the Historic Preservation Commission section of the Town website or the Planning and Inspections Department section of the Town website. Chairperson Plaag suggested that the HPC asks the Council for direction on publicizing the HPC generated information. He also included asking the Cultural Resources Department where they want to see this type of information.

Chairperson Plaag made a motion, seconded by Member Watkins for the Historic Preservation Commission to make a formal request to Council to consider a public online way to disseminate various historical reports that have been generated by the Historic Preservation Commission over the years to include the historic marker reports, historic landmark reports, historic District Designation report and the Downtown Survey Report.

Vote:

Aye – All

Nay – None

The motion passed.

Member Watkins added a friendly amendment stating that he would prefer that the information generated by the Historic Preservation Commission not be just located publicly online. Member Watkins withdrew his friendly amendment because a second motion and vote were made to cover the hard copy publication portion of the HPC generated information.

Member Watkins made a motion, seconded by Member Brantz for the Historic Preservation Commission to ask the Council to consider a development of a hard copy publication of the Downtown Survey Report in book form that would be available through an on-demand printer depending on the costs involved with the printing.

Chairperson Plaag explained that a University would not be interested in using their presses to print these types of publications, when maybe 200 copies would be needed. He said that there is a fairly reasonable profit margin for on-demand publications, if the pricing is done correctly. He noted that the HPC would need to hire someone using Town funds for the formal layout of the book. He said that the revenue from the sales from the book could be used to re-plenish the HPC fund Town budget line. He also said the hard-copy book sales could be another way to sustain the activities of the HPC.

Vote:

Aye – All

Nay – None

The motion passed.

Burrell Historical Marker Report

Chairperson Plaag reviewed the draft Burrell Historical Marker report entitled, “Status Update to Town Council Regarding Mary Moretz Request for Historical marker regarding Burrell” dated July 14, 2020 (permanently attached). He noted that he included the information on John Preston Arthur’s account of Daniel Boone’s travels to the west and the sources he interviewed indicating Burrell’s involvement that is included from the May 1, 1910 newspaper article. He said if the HPC does vote to send this information to Council, he asked the Planning Staff to encourage the Council members to view the newspaper article on a computer screen so they can enlarge the print to make it readable for them.

Chairperson Plaag asked for requested changes or comments on the historical marker report. He thanked Vice-Chairperson Pollitt for starting the draft Burrell historical marker report which saved him a lot of time in putting his portion of the draft report together. He said in the draft report, he expanded on what the misgivings are with the marker. Member Watkins said he would not constitute what Chairperson Plaag included in the draft report as misgivings. He said that Chairperson Plaag noted that the Town has already taken care of the misgivings. Chairperson Plaag further noted that it encourages us to let the facts speak for themselves.

Chairperson Plaag said he would be willing to contextualize some information for the Town website to help the public who reads the website to know who Burrell is and why a street is named after him.

Vice-Chairperson Pollitt made a motion, seconded by Member Brantz to present the draft Burrell Historical Marker status update to Council for their consideration at their August 2020 Council meetings.

Vote:

Aye – All

Nay – None

The motion passed.

Bryan, Hayes & Greene Cemetery

Chairperson Plaag noted that Ms. Turner is doing research on regulations for cemeteries in other towns. He said Ms. Turner has found regulations from Blowing Rock and Hickory, North Carolina (permanently attached). Ms. Turner noted that the regulations that she has found are for historical private cemeteries and cannot be found in their zoning ordinances. She said that other municipalities are emailing her their regulations. She said she would email the cemetery regulations to the HPC as soon as she receives them.

Chairperson Plaag suggested that any further discussion be tabled on the cemetery topic until the next meeting. He noted that hopefully, he or Vice-Chairperson Pollitt might be able to do more research on the cemetery deed ownership issue. Vice-Chairperson Pollitt said she would try to research it more.

Selection of Next Marker Project

Chairperson Plaag read the list of proposed markers noted in the September 2018 HPC meeting minutes: Founders Hall, second Watauga Hospital, Old Watauga Democrat building, Dan'l Boone Inn Restaurant, first Watauga Hospital, Councill House, Councill store, Old Jail House, Watauga Courthouse, Past Time Theatre, Watauga Drug Store, the Chocolate Bar in the Junaluska Community, the Holshouser House, Kraut Factory, Burley Tobacco Warehouse houses, Worthwhile women's Club and the Advent Christian Church.

Chairperson Plaag also read from the September 2019 HPC meeting minutes the nominations made by the HPC for the next proposed marker project which included: two nominations for the Junaluska Community which has been completed, one nomination for Founders Hall, one nomination for Councill's store and one nomination for Worthwhile Women's Club.

Chairperson Plaag said the HPC could vote for up to two locations. The majority voted for the Junaluska Community marker which has been completed. Members Brantz and Pollitt voted for Founders Hall. Members Bond, Brantz and Watkins voted for the Councill's store. Chairperson Plaag pointed out that the Holshouser House, Advent Christian Church and Rivers House are likely candidates for the national register and he would not recommend starting with these locations to add historical markers.

Discussion ensued on the selection of the next marker project. Chairperson Plaag noted his concern for the long-term survival of the Watauga County jail as a result of the development that is going up around it. He noted that at the next HPC meeting, he would like to talk about the jail being a possible landmark designation rather than having a historical marker for this historical property. Chairperson Plaag asked if the HPC wanted to work on the Council store as their next proposed historical marker project or would they want to work on another proposed marker location. Member Brantz said Council's store is worth researching for the next proposed marker location. Member Bond talked about merging the Council store proposed marker historical marker with the Boone Sesquicentennial celebration. She suggested the placement of the proposed Council's Store marker at the bulb out at W. King Street and Grand Boulevard. Chairperson Plaag noted that this would be a perfect location for the proposed marker and it would be near where Council's store was located.

Mr. John Ward, Town Manager joined the meeting at approximately 4:17 p.m.

Mr. Ward pointed out a major site visibility issue at the bulb out at W. King Street and Grand Boulevard coming into a state route. He said when you are turning left off of Grand Boulevard, it is difficult to see the traffic coming from the left. He explained that he would check with the North Carolina Department of Transportation on the site issue. He also said this suggested location would be a high visibility location for the proposed historical marker, if it can be done safely.

Chairperson Plaag pointed out another possible location for the proposed Council's Store marker. He described the pocket park that is located beside Town Hall on W. King Street as a possible location for the proposed marker. He noted it is the exact location that the Council Store was moved to which is directly across the street from the original Council's store. Mr. Ward explained that it has been discussed that a pocket park with added green space be added at the location beside Town Hall that would connect the Veterans Memorial and Town Hall. Mr. Ward noted that the Council members had made this area a public art space area. Mr. Ward said he likes the idea of incorporating the proposed marker at this location, if it can be worked out. It was the consensus of the HPC members to next work on the proposed historical marker for Council's store.

Member Brantz made a motion, seconded by Vice-Chairperson Pollitt for the Historic Preservation Commission members to move forward with researching the location for the proposed Council store historical marker.

Vote:

Aye – All

Nay – None

The motion passed.

Discussion ensued on the HPC members working on the proposed location of Council's Store historical marker. Member Bond stated that the HPC members could go ahead and start researching a proposed location prior to Council considering it at the August 2020 Council meeting. Chairperson Plaag noted Ms. Shook had informed the HPC that Council approved them to work on the Downtown Survey Report and the District Designation Report at this time.

Selection of Next Landmark/District Designation

Chairperson Plaag suggested that the HPC work on the Watauga County Jail landmark designation which would help protect it due to the development going on around it. He noted that Mr. Sam Furgiuele is the owner of the Watauga County Jail property and he felt there would be no owner opposition regarding it. He said the jail is the last 19th Century governmental building in the County. He asked the HPC if there was another landmark designation project that they would like to work on before the Watauga County Jail. Member Bond said she felt the Watauga County Jail needs to be worked on now.

Chairperson Plaag made a motion, seconded by Member Brantz for the Historic Preservation Commission to move forward with exploring local landmark designation for the Watauga County Jail.

Vote:

Aye – (Bond, Brantz, Pearman, Plaag, Pollitt, Watkins)

Nay – None

Abstention – (Clawson) due to technical issues.

The motion passed.

Planning for Boone Sesquicentennial

Chairperson Plaag reviewed the laws of North Carolina from 1871 to 1872 from a newspaper article (permanently attached). He read that the General Assembly voted to incorporate in a body of politic and corporate by the name and style of the Commissioners of the Town of Boone. He pointed out that it was ratified on January 23, 1872.

Discussion ensued on a previous celebration for the Town of Boone Centennial. Chairperson Plaag said he was not aware of a celebration of Boone's founding since around January of 1972. Member Bond talked about a celebration for Boone that included a parade but did not remember the date of it. Chairperson Plaag suggested that an HPC member go to the Watauga County Library and research the details of the Boone Centennial celebration around 1971 or 1972. Chairperson Plaag said in Digital Watauga there is a Boone Centennial paper that could be viewed for details. Chairperson Plaag asked Mr. Ward about his thoughts for this type of celebration. Mr. Ward suggested that the Downtown Staff or Cultural Resources Staff coordinate this type of event along with the Downtown Boone Development Association. He said they would need to request the approval of the Council and the Department of Transportation guided by the HPC. Member Bond suggested announcing that 2022 is the year of the Boone Sesquicentennial; and she noted that she did not want to have the event in January of any year. Chairperson Plaag suggested celebrating the Boone Sesquicentennial all year long by having an event each month. This might also include a larger celebration with the 4th of July parade. Mr. Ward suggested doing a celebration with the first Friday events rather than having a celebration with a parade.

Chairperson Plaag made a motion, seconded by Member Clawson that the Historic Preservation Commission ask Council to begin to think about a year long series of events for 2022 to celebrate the Sesquicentennial of Boone and to provide direction to the Town Manager for the coordination with Town Staff, Committees, Boards and Commissions to plan this series of events.

Vote:

Aye – All

Nay- None

The motion passed.

Community Member Request for Recognition of John Preston Arthur

Chairperson Plaag read a private email dated May 28, 2020 he had received from a community member regarding John Preston Arthur. He said he responded to said email not as an HPC member but a member of the community. He said the community member supported the honoring of John Preston Arthur but not with erecting a marker because he felt there are better ways to acknowledge him and note his positive contributions to preserving our local history without erecting an individual marker in his honor. He said an individual marker would at minimum be a source of great turmoil and further pain for many members of the Boone community. Mr. Arthur who was a noted confederate apologist and proponent of the lost cause, please see attached article with excerpts from one of his speeches (permanently attached). He said one of the ways the Watauga Historical Society acknowledges Mr. Arthur's work is to provide links to free digital versions of his history of Watauga County and frequently reference it in the Facebook posts, blog entries and other public notifications. The community member had responded to Chairperson Plaag to confirm he did not necessarily mean a historical marker, he meant some other way of recognizing Mr. Arthur.

Chairperson Plaag read from the newspaper article entitled, "Confederate Veterans" (permanently attached). After reading some sections of the article, Chairperson Plaag noted that he felt like the HPC as a body should not be considering a historical marker for Mr. Arthur, especially, in the current climate we are experiencing at this time.

Mr. Ward explained that he has been dealing with some phone calls from people that want to rename Boone. He talked about one of the other historical markers being talked about as being confrontational and he thought that now is not the right time to pursue a historical marker for Mr. Arthur. Member Bond noted that she is not in support of working on a historical marker for Mr. Arthur at this time.

Chairperson Plaag confirmed by consensus that the HPC members are not interested at this time in honoring John Preston Arthur with a historical marker, monument or any other honorary designation. He also informed the HPC members that he would like to email the community member as Mr. Eric Plaag a community member to let him know what the HPC had discussed at this meeting and it was the consensus of the HPC members that they were not interested in honoring John Preston Arthur at this time. He asked the HPC members if they had any concerns about him emailing the community member, if so to please let him know at this time.

Informal Discussion/Other Matters

Chairperson Plaag suggested the following topics for the next meeting agenda: board training, District Designation Report, Junaluska Historical Marker Update, Bryan, Hayes and Greene Cemetery and the Turner House.

Mr. Ward gave a brief update on the Turner House. He said that McGill Engineering will soon be presenting three options for parking on the Queen Street elevation lot. He said he forwarded this information to Mr. Deron Geouque, Watauga County Manager. He said that he plans to communicate with Mr. Geouque to see if McGill Engineering can present the information to the County. He talked about the development of a business plan to use the revenue generated from the parking spaces to pay for the debt of the construction. He said that he would like to get feedback from the Council and the County regarding the parking design which has the potential to go from 131 parking spaces to 450 parking spaces.

Adjournment

Member Brantz made a motion, seconded by Vice-Chairperson Pollitt to adjourn the meeting at 4:36 p.m.

Vote:

Aye – All

Nay – None

The motion passed.

Eric,

Thank you for this reminder, and I'm sorry that you had to give me one. Staff in our HPO (including myself) and our Historical Research office reviewed the report, which was outstanding and one of the best survey reports I've read. And I've heard that others enjoyed reading the manuscript.

The contexts are very well developed. The historic and current images and maps help one visualize the changes and developments over time, and the labeled photo on page 27 is especially helpful. The property entries at the end of the report have exceptional architectural and historical detail and are incredibly thorough. Detailed feedback by page is below. You'll find that it's mostly minor spelling/grammar corrections.

Best,

Annie.

- Page 3, Paragraph 3: 'a' should be deleted in "Boone relied primarily on a local agrarian interests..."
- Page 8, Paragraph 2 and Page 9, Paragraph 3: It would be helpful to include the position/role of Annie McDonald (Preservation Specialist in the Survey & National Register Branch of the SHPO) and Lu Ann Welter (previously with the City of Hendersonville's Planning Department).
- Page 18, last Paragraph: "Surprisingly Watauga County's original courthouse somehow survived Stoneman's Raid" seems redundant, if not extreme. I'm not aware of Stoneman's men targeting courthouses in North Carolina. They mostly were going after infrastructure and supplies. Boone's jail was burned—was it right next to the courthouse? If so, that should be described. As it is, it sounds as though Stoneman's raids targeted courthouses as a matter of fact and "somehow" this one survived. If there is a scholarly source that describes widespread destruction in Boone, cite it and describe more fully the devastation.
- Page 49, Footnote 64: The note is a bit outdated, and it would be good to bring it up to date with whatever has happened and leave it at that—such as: In 2019 the county Commissioners voted to level the Hardin house in order to build a parking lot. Or if it was saved, briefly recount the details.
- Page 53, photo caption: Include the SSN for this resource to be consistent with other captions.
- Page 57, Paragraph 3: Though its location is described later on in the Survey Results and Recommendations section of the report, it may be helpful to include a brief description or explanation of Hippy Hill as this is its first mention. It's an unusual place name and sort-of begs for an explanation, if possible.
- Page 72, Paragraph 3: You might want to add "potentially" in front of "National Register-eligible" in the second line down.
- Page 73, Paragraph 4: In addition to the map with the recommended boundaries for the proposed downtown historic district, you might also include a map that shows the approximate boundaries and number of resources contained within the Hippy Hill area. This would be beneficial if/when the town thinks about further study of this area. One caution I'll add is that to suggest the potential for a local historic district in this area could set up opposition to the designation on the front end. You might simply say that it's "...worthy of further study," and leave it at that without specifying local designation, unless you know now that there is interest in possible local designation. Or you might add a sentence or two about the town engaging with property owners to learn of potential interest in local district designation. If you include a map of this area, you might label it "for further study" or something like that.

- Page 74: You might want to clarify in the map label that the recommended boundaries are for a locally designated historic district. That it just says “historic district” might lead one to think it’s for a National Register designation. I realize that the explanation on page 73 speaks to this, but reinforcing it on Page 74 may be beneficial.
- Page 98, Paragraph 2 (R.L. Clay House): The last sentence, “This retaining wall continues a short distance and parallel with the west elevation of the house,” seems to be missing something. Or should the word “and” be deleted?
- Page 105, Paragraph 3 (Frank Linney House): Typo of 'liked' instead of likely;
- Page 118, Paragraph 3: “Windows” is spelled “widows” in the second line down.
- Page 150, Paragraph 4 (J.L. Qualls Block): “Include” should be “including.”
- Page 153, Paragraph 3 (B.W. Stallings Jewelry Store): States that B.W. Stallings lost this property in 1973 to his wife in a divorce and that she held onto it until 1973. Is the phrasing confusing here, or is one of the dates incorrect?
- Page 169, Paragraph 3 (Watauga Motor Company): The first sentence ends with a comma instead of a period.
- Page 170, Paragraph 1 (Watauga Motor Company): “Wih” should be “with” in the seventh line from the bottom of the paragraph.
- Page 187, Paragraph 1 (First Baptist Church): 'Runs along' is written twice, at roughly 1/3 and 2/3 through the paragraph. You may consider rephrasing one to eliminate redundancy.
- Page 211, Paragraph 2 (Colvard Chevrolet Showroom): “Each” should be “east” in the second line.
- Page 212, Paragraph 4 (Colvard Chevrolet Garage): In the sentence beginning “Meanwhile, It...,” in the third line from the bottom, “It” should not be capitalized.
- Page 213, Paragraph 4 (A.E. And Roberta Hodges House): Missing open parentheses before Deed Book 52, page 515.
- Page 249, Paragraph 4 (Anderson-Weston Building): “Locatd” in the bottom line should be “located”.
- Page 266, Paragraph 3 (R.T. Greer Building): “Is” should be “are” in “The other two openings is” in the third line from the bottom.
- Page 267, Paragraph 3 (Ralph and Edith Estes Apartment Houses): “To the west of this gable is the same door confirmation...” in the fifth line from the bottom of the paragraph. Should “confirmation” be “configuration?”
- Page 268, Paragraph 1 (Ralph and Edith Estes Apartment Houses): “Bump out” misspelled as “bump our” in the third line down.
- Page 290, Paragraph 1 (C.M. Critcher Building): “Portion” misspelled as “portiono” in the first line.
- Page 293, Paragraph 2 (Baker-Commack Hosiery Mills): “Runs” should be “run” in “Metal balustrades runs.”

- Page 311, Paragraph 2 (Sebastian Building): “Double-hung misspelled as “double-hug” in the middle of the paragraph.
- Page 338, Paragraph 3 (Winkler Motor Company Showroom): The sentence “The northernmost portion was something...” is a little confusing.

Hi Annie,

I'm just checking in to see if you have any written feedback for me regarding the Downtown Boone survey report. I am nearing completion of the designation report draft, and I'd like to have all of these things in line for approval in the next couple of months, if possible.

Thanks,

Eric

Hi Annie,

At long last, I am sending you a link to the final draft of the Final Report, Comprehensive Architectural Survey of Downtown Boone, North Carolina. This is the compressed, PDF version showing all of the required images. If it would be useful during your review/feedback process to have the text portions as MS Word files, let me know, and I can upload them as well.

PDF report is here: <https://www.dropbox.com/s/c5r4k4tnn7mwwwu/Downtown%20Boone%20Survey%20Report%2C%20Dec%2028%202019%20Final%20Draft%2C%20compiled%2C%20reduced.pdf?dl=0> [dropbox.com]

I understand that the Boone Town Council and Historic Preservation Commission are eager to receive your feedback on the survey report. In the meantime, I have been asked to move forward with preparing the local district designation report for a downtown historic district encompassing the boundaries shown on the map in the report. I anticipate that this will be submitted to you by early spring, following public comment and other feedback I believe the Town intends to solicit from the community.

For your information, the lower (southern) section of Water Street was recently renamed Burrell Street in honor of an enslaved person associated with Benjamin Howard and Daniel Boone. The Water/Burrell Street addresses have not been updated to reflect this change, since new addresses for the handful of properties along that section of Burrell Street were not yet available at the time this report was prepared. We can easily update this information for the truly final version of the report.

Please let me know if you have any questions, and I look forward to receiving your feedback on the report. I will be preparing the updated survey files and shell database this winter/spring and submitting those to you when they are complete.

Best,

Eric

Status Update to Town Council Regarding Mary Moretz Request for Historical Marker Regarding Burrell

July 14, 2020

Dear Mayor Brantz, Members of Council, and Town Manager Ward,

On August 15, 2019, Mary Moretz appeared before the Boone Town Council asking the Council to honor a man named Burrell with a statue, a marker, a monument, or some similar permanent fixture located somewhere within Boone's town limits. After some discussion, Town Council members voted "that the Town Manager work with Ms. Moretz and the Historic Preservation Commission to formulate a plan for a historical marker in an appropriate place on the Rivers property, near the Daniel Boone statue on campus or on Water/Burrell Street." This memo serves as an update to Town Council regarding their request that the Boone Historic Preservation Commission explore the potential for a marker in Burrell's honor.

Following direction from the Boone Town Council, Mary Moretz appeared before the HPC in late 2019 to share various materials referencing Burrell and to make some additional comments about her request. These materials included a list of sources purporting to "verify the authenticity of Burrell," a brief manuscript prepared by Moretz entitled "In Search of Burrell," a timeline of Benjamin Howard's life, a printout of the Findagrave page for Colonel Isbell, a photocopy from microfilm and a transcription of Benjamin Howard's 1828 will, a transcription of Mary "Polly" Howard's 1836 will, a brief biographical excerpt on Benjamin Howard from Notable Southern Families, a printout of the 1840 US Census Slave Schedule entry for Thomas Isbell, and a couple of other articles related to Benjamin Howard.

According to materials provided by Mary Moretz, Burrell was born enslaved around 1745 and was legally the property of Benjamin Howard (1742-1828), who lived in Wilkes County but owned much of the land that is now part of Boone. Howard grazed cattle on his high country lands summer and fall. According to Howard and Isbell family sources, one of his cowherds was Burrell, who was often left alone for months at a time in the mountains to tend to the herds. Upon the death of Benjamin Howard, his daughter Mary inherited Burrell, and she in turn left Burrell to her daughter Prudence when she died. Moretz has speculated that Burrell remained enslaved by Thomas Isbell, Sr., at the 1840 Census, although there is no clear evidence for this. According to Arthur, Burrell spent the later years of his life in a cabin on the Yadkin River, probably in Wilkes County.

In May 1909, local historian John Preston Arthur interviewed Colonel James Martin Isbell (1837-1913, grandson of Thomas Isbell, Sr.) of King's Creek, Wilkes County, NC. Isbell was a great grandson of Benjamin Howard. Isbell recalled that when he was a boy, perhaps around 1845, when he was 7 and Burrell was over 100 years old, Burrell told him stories of leading Daniel Boone and a hunting party over the Blue Ridge into southwest Virginia and northeast Tennessee in the winter months of 1761. Arthur published brief versions of Isbell's reminiscences in a 1914 Skyland

Magazine article entitled “Trail of Daniel Boone” and in two books: A History of Western North Carolina (1913) and A History of Watauga County (1915). In each publication, Burrell is mentioned in a single paragraph.

HPC members' subsequent research shows that all references to Burrell provided by Moretz (aside from the will documents) derive from Arthur's brief mentions of Burrell in the works cited above. A lengthier, full-page account of Arthur's search for Daniel Boone's path through Watauga County also appeared in the Charlotte Daily Observer on May 1, 1910, and is appended as a PDF hereto. It also references Burrell on two occasions (as well as a possible descendant, Burrill, who was living at or near Benjamin Councill's brick house in Vilas prior to 1865) and appears to be the basis for Arthur's later accounts.¹

Unfortunately, a lone interview with an elderly man recalling stories from his youth 60 or more years prior to the interview, which were in turn based on secondhand stories that were at least 80 years old when they were relayed to him by a man well over the age of 100, is a scant foundation for historical certainty. Of additional concern is that the sole purpose of Burrell's mention in these interview recollections was to establish Daniel Boone's association with the vicinity of Boone, North Carolina, nearly 150 years after the fact, rather than to document Burrell's association with the area or his history as an enslaved person with what must have been a remarkable degree of agency and power in colonial America. Such a narrative, presented as it was in the 1910s, carries with it implications of the insulting, degrading, and ahistorical “happy slave” trope that was so common to southern historical writing of the early twentieth century. In short, it was not Burrell's actual history that Arthur hoped to document by invoking Burrell's name.

During the period from 1909 to 1915, John Preston Arthur and his close friend, Col. William Lewis Bryan, were shameless promoters of the idea that Daniel Boone had camped and hunted at Boone, as well as passed through the area on his route west. Both men played substantial roles in the effort to mark the alleged trail of Daniel Boone and to erect the Daniel Boone Monument on the purported site of the Boone/Howard cabin near Boone Creek in order to drive tourism through the town of Boone. Bryan, in fact, was Boone's first mayor and held the position off and on for a total of 25 years. The early twentieth century was rife with various schemes dreamed up by Boone's leaders to draw visitors to the sleepy, underdeveloped, and remote county seat, and there's a fair amount of evidence that the truth was often sacrificed to what sounded “truthy” during this period. In a footnote on page 142 of Arthur's history of Watauga County, Arthur explained that most of the facts for his chapter on the history of Boone came from Bryan and his wife, rather than from any rigorous, primary source research of his own: “I am also indebted to them for so much other information which I have embodied in this book, that to credit them with each item would be almost impossible. Colonel Bryan, indeed, is almost as much the author of the work as I am myself.” Sadly, the circumstances suggest that these men were once again exploiting Burrell’s life and history, even in death, to serve a cause to which Burrell remained, in their eyes, a convenient but disposable tool.

In short, the HPC is deeply concerned about the optics and ethics of erecting an historical marker to an enslaved person based solely on the third-hand accounts of white men engaged in using his memory to promote a marketing scheme, especially since at least one of those men was an avowed Confederate apologist and Lost Cause proponent (see attached). That said, the concerns of the HPC should not, under any circumstances, be construed as an assertion that Burrell did not exist or that he did not serve as Benjamin Howard’s enslaved cowherd in the valley where the Town of Boone now lies. It is probably true that Burrell lived part of his life in or near what is now Boone and toiled as a cowherd for Benjamin Howard in this area in the fair weather months. It is certainly possible that Burrell accompanied and provided direction to Daniel Boone’s hunting party as an enslaved person on the first leg of Boone’s initial trek over the Blue Ridge in the winter months of 1761.

Unfortunately, though, the readily available, primary source evidence found to date is far from sufficient to rise to the necessary standard for documenting and justifying an historical marker in Burrell’s honor. Evidence about the rest of Burrell’s life and contributions may indeed be lost to history. At best, present documentation affirms a local tradition regarding Burrell that dates to the early twentieth century, and while this is intriguing in its own right, this does not meet the documentation standards for the Town of Boone historical marker program or the North Carolina Historical Marker program on which the Town program is based. Further investigation of Burrell and his contributions to Boone’s early history would require money and time to search records in the state archives in Raleigh as well as local historical society offices in Yadkin and Wilkes County. The HPC members are concerned that these additional investigations would be costly and unlikely to reveal further significant information about Burrell. Instead, the members of the HPC believe that this money and time would be better spent on other projects—including those focusing on Boone’s people of color whose contributions are more tangible and easily documented—that are likely to meet the professional, ethical, and documentary standards to which the members of the HPC are obligated, both under North Carolina law and as part of their existing professional associations.

The members of the HPC instead note that Town Council has already seen fit to rename a portion of Water Street as Burrell Street in Burrell’s honor. In lieu of an historical marker in Burrell’s honor, the HPC recommends that the Town website be updated, alongside other historical information previously prepared by the HPC about the Town’s historic sites, to contextualize and explain the longstanding, local tradition of Burrell’s association with the valley where the Town of Boone lies. The HPC will gladly assist in preparing an historically appropriate and contextualized narrative to meet this purpose.

- (b) The city manager may appoint a cemetery sexton or such other employees as may, in the opinion of the city manager, be necessary to oversee daily operations of the cemeteries, and may delegate or vest such authority in such individuals as the city manager may deem appropriate.
- (c) For purposes of this chapter, duties and responsibilities shall be ascribed to the cemetery sexton, which shall include the individual charged with the duties attributable thereto, as well as any supervisor of such individual, to and including the city manager.

(Amend. No. 7, 5-17-05)

Sec. 7-17. - Purchase of lots; prices, sale and management of burial spaces.

- (a) Individuals desiring to purchase a burial space in the city cemetery must pay the fee designated for such burial space to the finance department of the city prior to use.

 - (2) In the absence of an adopted fee schedule, the next preceding fee schedule shall be applied.
- (b) The cemetery sexton may close the sale of burial spaces in the cemetery or any portions thereof as may, in the sexton's discretion, promote the orderly development and operation of the cemetery.
 - (1) Recognizing that many of the city's cemetery grounds have been in use in excess of a century, and that a significant number of unmarked graves are discovered during cemetery operations, the cemetery sexton is given the authority to close any cemetery or portion thereof when, in the sexton's opinion, the number of usable gravesites is significantly impacted by the number of unmarked graves.

- a. Such authority shall carry the ability to determine whether the cemetery or portion thereof shall be closed solely to the sale of future gravesites, or whether no further apparently unused gravesites shall be opened for purposes of interment.
 - b. In the event that a cemetery or portion thereof has been closed to the opening of apparently unused gravesites, the cemetery sexton may make an exception if, in the sexton's opinion, the likelihood of a gravesite in question being previously occupied but unmarked is low given the information available either from the sexton's records, from information provided by next of kin or parties with knowledge of adjacent gravesites, or from other sources of information which may be available to the sexton.
- (2) The cemetery sexton shall notify the city manager in writing of the decision to close any cemetery or part thereof, and the city manager shall thereafter notify the council.

This right shall not extend to any individual other than the original purchaser.

- (a) An individual may purchase no more than eight contiguous standard burial spaces, sometimes known as a "family plot" or "multiple grave burial space" at any one time.

 - (2) The city may repurchase from any individual desiring to convey and at the original sale price, burial spaces at any time prior to use.
 - (3) The city retains, in all burial spaces, the right to repurchase any lot offered for sale or attempted to be conveyed to any other individual if, in the opinion of the city, recovery of the burial space is necessary for the efficient operation of the cemetery or for any other reason.
 - (4) The city shall not be obligated to recognize any attempt to convey or transfer burial spaces unless the same shall have been submitted to and approved by the city on the appropriate form.
- (b) Burial spaces will be sold to funeral homes or mortuaries only for purposes of interment of a specific individual, and may not be held by any individual or entity for speculation or resale.
 - (1) The sale of burial spaces to a funeral home or mortuary is intended as a convenience to the individuals and families affected by the death of a loved one, and to allow commercial entities to make arrangements on their behalf.
 - (2) Any funeral home or other commercial entity making arrangements for the purchase of a burial space shall remain responsible to the city for payment of fees associated with such purchase.
 - (3) Cemetery deeds intended to convey interment rights in a burial space shall be issued only to individual human beings, and not to any artificial or corporate entity.

 - (2) A burial space immediately adjacent to a used or reserved space may be reserved for a period of 60 days from the date of use of the initial space. If the fee for such space shall not be paid within such time, the burial space shall be released and may be resold as any other lot.
- (d) Certificates and deeds.
- (1) Upon payment of the sum required, the finance director, or the finance director's designee, shall advise the cemetery sexton of the sale of the designated burial space.
 - (2) A cemetery deed, in the case of a burial space in the ground, or columbarium niche purchase agreement, as may be appropriate, shall be prepared and executed by the required municipal officials.
 - a. A cemetery deed shall be signed by the mayor or city manager, and shall be attested by the city manager or city clerk. The city manager may not sign as principal and attest the same document.
 - b. The city clerk shall retain records of the issuance of cemetery deeds. The primary responsibility for maintaining such records and physical location of the same may be assigned to other city departments with the approval of the city manager, although the city clerk shall retain ultimate responsibility for maintaining the records.
 - (3) The purchaser shall remain responsible for filing the cemetery deed with the registrar of deeds of the county where the cemetery is located.
 - a. The deed need not be filed with the register of deeds to be effective as between the city and the purchaser. However, in order to fully protect the purchaser's rights, it is strongly encouraged that the deeds be filed with the register of deeds. The purchaser is responsible for the expense of filing this document.
 - b. Columbarium niche purchase agreements shall not be recorded with the county registrar of deeds, but records of such sale shall be maintained by the city clerk.
- (e) In the event of the loss or destruction of an original cemetery deed prior to the filing of the same with the registrar of deeds, the city clerk, upon concurrence with the staff attorney, may issue a replacement cemetery deed to the original holder without charge.
- (1) If a replacement cemetery deed is requested by the original purchaser or a surviving spouse of the original purchaser remains alive, the replacement cemetery deed shall be reissued in the name of the original purchaser or the surviving spouse of the original purchaser, as may be appropriate.
 - (2) If the original purchaser is deceased and there is no surviving spouse of the original purchaser, a replacement cemetery deed may be issued to an individual purporting to be entitled to the burial space by reason of either being named as an heir, devisee or legatee of the burial spaces pursuant to a properly probated will or pursuant to the laws of intestate succession of the State of North Carolina.
 - a. In the event that an individual is claiming to be entitled pursuant to the laws of intestate succession, the burden of providing proof of such entitlement rests with the individual making such claim.
 - b. Prior to the issuance of a replacement cemetery deed to an individual claiming pursuant to a will or intestate succession, such individual shall execute an agreement to indemnify the city for any costs or loss incurred, including reasonable attorney fees, in the event that a challenge is raised as to ownership of the burial space.
- (f) Conveyance of a burial space in a city cemetery, whether in the earth, a mausoleum or columbarium niche, does not imply ownership of the underlying fee estate, but instead carries only the right to use a location for the interment of a deceased human.

- (g) The use of any cemetery property is limited by the provisions of the North Carolina General Statutes, Hickory City any rules or regulations promulgated by any regulatory entity having jurisdiction for the safe, efficient and respect the city cemetery.

- b. Such agreement must be accompanied by satisfactory evidence in writing that the persons signing the same are surviving heirs of the original purchaser.
- c. Each such agreement must carry an indemnification from each signatory thereto indicating that the city will be held harmless from any claim whatsoever, including court costs and reasonable attorney fees, for honoring such request.
- (3) In the event the original purchaser of a burial space has not made such designation and the descendants have not entered into such an agreement, then interments in said burial space shall be made in the following order:
- a. Space must be reserved for any surviving spouse, regardless of whether such surviving spouse shall remarry after the death of the original purchaser, and such surviving spouse shall have first right to interment to the exclusion of all other persons.
- b. The direct lineal descendants of the original purchaser in nearest degree of blood or consanguinity shall have next right of burial in the order of their death, provided that grandchildren of the purchaser and kindred of more remote degree shall not be buried on said lot without the written consent of at least two-thirds of all the then living lineal descendants of nearer degree of blood or consanguinity to the purchaser.
- c. If there remain unoccupied spaces after providing for interments as aforesaid or if there be no lineal descendants, then collateral kindred of the original purchaser in the nearest degree of blood or consanguinity are entitled to interment therein.

- (4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, in the event that more than three individuals would be entitled to interment rights in a particular burial space, the city may repurchase said burial space from such individuals, with or without their consent, by paying the greater of either the original purchase price of the burial space or $100.00, divided among such individuals as their interests may appear.
- (d) In determining the ownership of interment rights, the city shall not at anytime be bound to recognize any person as grantee or owner of any rights except the original purchaser named in the original conveyance and successors as herein specified, nor shall the city at any time be bound to recognize any agreement or understanding affecting such rights not in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and filed with the city clerk.

- (b) The city shall further have the right to correct errors in the description, transfer or conveyance of any burial space, either by canceling such conveyance and substituting and conveying in lieu thereof other burial space of equal value and similar location as far as reasonably possible, or, in the sole discretion of the city, by refunding the price paid for such burial space or spaces.
- (c) In the event the error shall involve the interment of the remains of any person in such space, the city reserves and shall have the right to remove and re-inter the remains to such other space of equal value and similar location as may be substituted and conveyed in lieu thereof.

- (b) The city reserves the right to stop all work of any nature in the cemetery whenever, in the opinion of the cemetery sexton after consultation with such individuals as the cemetery sexton may deem appropriate:
 - (1) Proper preparation therefore has not been made; or
 - (2) The work is being executed in such a manner as to threaten life or property; or
 - (3) Any reasonable request of the city is disregarded; or
 - (4) Continuation of the work could expose the city to liability for any reason whatsoever; or
 - (5) Work is not being executed according to specifications; or
 - (6) Any fees or charges payable to the city remain outstanding by the individual requesting, hiring or performing such work, whether such fees are related to the particular project in question or some other reason.
- (c) It shall be unlawful for any person, except for city coworkers in the performance of their duties, to perform any work in the cemetery without having previously obtained a permit for such work.
- (d) The city expressly reserves the right to use any burial space for purposes necessary to the management or operation of the cemetery, including, but not limited to, the right of passing over, passing machinery over, standing or otherwise occupying the surface of such lot.

Eric-

The following is an excerpt from the September 11, 2018 meeting when HPC voted on the next five markers. Let me know if you need anything else. Sorry for the delay. I've been sick, we are covered up with permits and down quite a few people. I hope you're doing well. Looking forward to the meeting tomorrow. Thanks and take care.

Discussion of List of Next Five Markers

Chairperson Plaag said he did speak with Ms. Roberta Jackson of the Junaluska Heritage Association regarding a plaque for the Junaluska area and she liked the idea of having a marker for the Junaluska community as a whole but she wanted to discuss it with the Junaluska Heritage Association members. He said he also spoke with Ms. Sue Keefe, a JHA member and she was interested in a plaque that would generally talk about the history of the Junaluska community.

Discussion ensued on the placement of the next five markers. The HPC talked about considering the following locations for markers: Founders Hall/second Watauga Hospital, Old Watauga Democrat building, Dan'l Boone Inn Restaurant/first Watauga Hospital, Council House, Council Store, Old Jail House, Watauga Courthouse, Past Time Theatre, Watauga Drug Store, and the Chocolate Bar in the Junaluska Community, Junaluska Community, the Holshouser House, Kraut Factory, Burley Tobacco Warehouse houses, Worthwhile Women's Club and the Advent Christian Church.

The HPC nominated the following three locations for markers out of the above list: Member Bond and Watkins nominated the Junaluska Community, Member Brantz nominated Founders Hall located on State property and Chairperson Plaag nominated the Council Store. Vice-Chairperson Pearman nominated the Worthwhile Women's Club that is owned by Mr. Carl and Mrs. Virginia Roseman.

Chairperson Plaag told the HPC they could vote for up to two locations. Members Plaag, Pollitt, Bond, Brantz and Watkins voted for the Junaluska Community. Members Brantz and Pollitt voted for Founders Hall. Members Bond, Brantz and Watkins voted for the Council Store. Chairperson Plaag noted that the HPC would research these markers at the next HPC meeting.

Chairperson Plaag pointed out that the Holshouser House, Advent Christian Church and Rivers House are likely candidates for the national register and he would not recommend starting with these locations to add markers. He said it would be better to put the Town's resources on getting property owner authorization and try to get them on the national register.

Chairperson Plaag talked about possibly doing a marker for the Watauga Handicrafts Building because it will not be placed on the national register because it has been moved and altered.

Chairperson Plaag talked about the difficult history of the Ku Klux Klan in Boone. He said the 1875 Watauga Courthouse was renamed Ku Klux Klan hall in 1925 and kept that name for several years. He said that this history needs to be unfolded and the HPC needs to decide how much of this type of difficult history should be interpreted to the public.

Hi Christy,

As we discussed at the last meeting, I believe the HPC had previously created a prioritized list of future historical markers as well as local landmark designations. You had said you would look for this and email it to me.

Could you track these lists down and get them to me prior to Tuesday's meeting? I'll also search about on this end for the lists.

Thanks,

Eric

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

AN APPEAL IN THEIR BEHALF.

A County Home For Such of These Poor Old Heroes As Cannot Receive Shelter In the State Home.

The undersigned of the last meeting of Thomas Battle, Camp, Confederate Veterans, of Wayne county, were appointed a committee to devise means for the erection of a Soldiers' Home for indigent ex-Confederate Soldiers of Wayne county.

There are now living in this county about 260 ex-Confederate soldiers, of this number there are 25 or 30, who, on account of wounds and diseases, are totally unable to provide for themselves. The State of North Carolina, at the last session of the Legislature, appropriated two hundred thousand dollars for the erection of the Home at Raleigh and pensions for disabled soldiers and widows. The Home is now crowded to its full capacity. Wayne county we understand, has only 2 inmates, which, it is believed, is disproportionate number. The Home is now filled and it is impossible to secure admission for others. Of this we are not complaining. Perhaps it is as much as the State can do, or at least, as it is doing, and provision must be made for those who are among us, and who are suffering for the common necessities of life. We are in a position to know something of the distress and suffering which some of the poor old fellows are undergoing, and realize the necessity of making provision for them. It is our purpose to erect a Home for them near the city of Goldsboro, and see that they are taken care of the few remaining years of their life. In making this appeal to those of the ex-Confederate soldiers who are able to contribute, and the public generally, we confidently believe that you will cheerfully and gladly respond to the call. We do not believe any one who is able to contribute will fail to do so after reading the following extract from an address delivered by Jno. P. Arthur, Esq., of the Asheville Post:

"These men were young soldiers of then, not they are old soldiers now. They belong to a new large, but now rapidly diminishing class of men whom we have come to regard almost with the eyes of indifference. — the Confederate veterans. With modest means and uncomplaining speech they come and go, gray veterans, with bent forms and frayed coats, and the ashes of age supplanting the roses of youth, that but a little while ago blushed on beardless cheeks. The eyes that blazed with the battle-light of Seven Pines and the bloody ridge look out upon these smiling plains and overlying hills, but they are dim and almost sightless now. The daring hours of many of them that charged up the heights of Gettysburg are contending with a benumbing fee than shrapnel, bayonet or mummy ball. Cold and hunger and disease are drawing their slowly painful over us. They can hear the sapper and mine digging beneath their feet and counterpane as distinctly as they heard them in the trenches in front of Petersburg in the dread winter of sixty-five, but no counterpane that they can construct, no deprecate ally that they can make on much longer keep the unseen enemy from his prey. They diligently pursue the path of peace, and watch the world go past them as in a dream. They are being rapidly left behind. Their children have grown up and left them, and it may even be that the patient partners of their lives are sleeping out yonder in unmarked graves, and the ashes on their hearths are old and gray. The State does not even promise them a grave, save in the Potter's field, and the final slumber of old age is haunted by the nightmare of poverty, and cold and loneliness. They do not murmur, but ah, they cannot forget. Would they could, for they are often made to feel that they are forgotten and cast aside. Nothing was too good for the gallant Swannanoa, forty-one years ago to whistling life and thinking drum, beneath the bright banner, that the girls they left behind them had made from their daintiest gowns and embroidered by the work of their deft fingers. They were offering to lay down their lives for you and me, in a cause that was yours and mine. They were broken on the wheel of war in the cause the State had made its own. I ask the new leaders of the New South to remember the old soldiers of the old South. Their ranks are thinning fast. The last long roll beats for some of them every day. Soon there will not be a single veteran left to need our grudging bounty; soon all will have passed over the river to rest with Stonewall Jackson "beneath the shade of the trees," where blossom only "the lilies of eternal peace, whose odors haunt our dreams."

"Remember the scant ration of parched corn and tepid brandy water; remember the long, hard hot months beneath the blazing sun of summer; remember the short, nights of troubled sleep upon the restless field and in the entry, tricket with fence rails for a pillow and the dread revolve of musketry and cannon for their waking. Remember the winter camp upon the frozen ground; remember the bitter frost, the cold between lines of privation, hardship and sickness, and barefoot children singing beside war muskets, "when this cruel war is over" remember the lonely hours upon the cheerless picket line, when they thought of the two in the low trundle bed, far in the cot on the mountain."

"I confess to a keen sense of personal humiliation that I, who have no part in the war, should feel constrained to remind men of Southern blood and birth of these things. Can it be that those sacrifices are already forgotten? And by Southern men? Be sure, my friends, that the world has not forgotten, and that our children will not forget, "for as long as the Southern struggle shall linger in tradition and in song will their memory be cherished by the descendants of the Southern race." Of them Henry Ward Beecher truly said, that "they followed their dying union flag to wounds and death as simply and so bravely as if it had been the Banner of the Cross and they the old Crusaders."

"History holds no page one-half so refulgent as the record of the Private Soldier of the Southern Confederacy. In recording his deeds, we honor ourselves and asperse the memory of Davis, Jackson and Lee. "When our children gather around the winter hearstones to hear the grandeur of Chancellorsville, Gettysburg and Malvern Hill, what shall we tell them was the measure of our gratitude to the men who stood beneath the bat-winged pall of Appomattox? What shall we say we did for the tutored remnant that, after returning to build up the waste places of the South, found that they must still for twenty years carry on a warfare for civilization? What shall we say we were doing for those men who had done so much for us, when forty years after Malvern Hill, they could do for themselves no longer?"

We do not believe this appeal will be in vain. Already have we been encouraged by liberal donations from ex-Confederates and other good citizens of the county, and we now ask for contributions sufficient to swell the amount to $2,000, which amount we believe will be ample for the purpose. Subscription lists will be placed in the hands of men in the several sections of the county and we bespeak for them liberal donations. If any should be overlooked, your contribution can be sent to the committee at Goldsboro or left at the drug store of J. H. Hill & Son.
